W.O. SMITH OBJECTS TO LAND EXCHANGE

Believes Honolulu Hale Should Be Held By Territory

"I want to offer a protest against the Territorial Government including the premises of the old Honolulu Hale in any land exchange," said W. O. Smith this morning to the Bulletin man.

"I understand that there is talk of including this Honolulu Hale property in an exchange that will enable the Territory to gain possession of the land now occupied by C. Brewer & Co. on the waterfront.

"I have always opposed and believe I am sound in opposing the transfer to private parties of any public property in the heart of the city. I believe it was a mistake to sell the land on which the Yokohama Specie Bank is located.

"In the course of time the postoffice will be moved to the Mahaka site, where the Federal building will be erected.

"There can be no better site for the future city hall than the Honolulu Hale grounds and possibly the present postoffice headquarters. Being near the police station, that is the logical place for the city hall.

"I believe the Territorial Government should not part by exchange or sale with any public property in the heart of the city. I opposed the extension of the lease to Brewer & Co. when it was made. We should retain possession of all land now in the centers where public offices should naturally be."

HELLO GIRLS SAY "PLEASE"

New Manual Issued for Telephone Operators in London

LONDON, Eng., Jan. 9. — A new manual in polite manners for trunk telephone operators has just been issued by the Postmaster General. The Postmaster General is insistent that the word "Please" should be used wherever possible, and he states that the circular is issued in order that "abrupt and uncouth" expressions may be avoided in the telephone service. The following are some extracts from the instructions:

"A telephonist at the position answering a call should announce her presence by saying, 'Trunk, number please.' Failing to hear what the subscriber says, she should say, 'Please repeat,' and so on.

"When a subscriber's attention has been obtained for a trunk call the telephonist should say, 'What is your number, please?' If a subscriber has been kept waiting for more than the regulation time the telephonist should add, 'Sorry to have you waiting.'"

Washington, Jan. 9. — Porto Rico, through her resident commissioner in the United States, Mr. Larringa, and a special commission which came here for the purpose, is making a determined fight for the imposition of a duty of 5 cents a pound on foreign coffee. Because of the fact that since 1875 coffee has been on the free list, the Porto Ricans maintain that their principal industry, now that the tariff is about to be revised, should be given proper protection. It is said that this would not only increase the production of the island possessions of the United States, but would go far toward bettering the condition of the poorer classes, who live almost entirely upon rice, upon which there is a duty of 2

ISENBERG ESTATE ACCOUNTS FILED

Executors Ask Authority To Distribute Big Sum

Bela Margerthe Isenberg, J. F. Hackfeld and D. P. R. Isenberg have filed a petition for the approval of their annual accounts as executrix and executors of the estate of Paul H. P. C. Isenberg, and for an order authorizing a partial distribution of the estate.

They show that they have discharged their duties, and further that on Oct. 23, 1908, there were distributed to the heirs 12,000 common shares of H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd., as follows: Mrs. Bela Isenberg, 4000 shares, Mrs. Dora R. Isenberg, Paul R. Isenberg, Johannes Carl Isenberg, Mrs. Julie Barkhausen, Mrs. Clara Wendroffe, Richard M. Isenberg, Mrs. Paula Volkmann and estate of H. A. Isenberg 1000 shares each.

The statement shows that the receipts amounted to a total of $639,584.93, of which $294,381.94 was a balance of last year's accounts, $136,500 was collected on a 15 per cent dividend on 9100 shares of H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd., $150,637.50 was collected in interest on notes from H. A. Isenberg, F. Klump and J. F. Humburg and on a claim against Hackfeld & Co., while payments made by the above mentioned amounted to $273,750.

The disbursements, amounted to $502,932.79, of which $294,381.94 is represented by amounts distributed among the heirs as follows: Mrs. Bela Isenberg (1-3) $68,127.30, D. P. R. Isenberg, Mary D. P. Isenberg, J. H. Isenberg, Estate H. A. Isenberg, Clara M. K. Isenberg, R. M. Isenberg, Julie M.

P. Isenberg and Paula H. J. Volkmann, $17,031.81 each. Of the remainder $290,000 is represented by various payments, principally for shares in Hackfeld & Co.

It is shown that there is a balance on hand of $120,000, which the petitioners ask to distribute according to the terms of the will.

PEARL HARBOR CAMP

the plantation railroad from the O. R. & I. lines to the reservation. There connections will be made with the government line.

"Despite the fact that our camp will be on the waterfront, and we have our own barges, we find that it will be cheaper to transport our materials from here to Pearl Harbor by rail," said Walter Dillingham to a Bulletin reporter this morning.

The men sent down to Pearl Harbor this week will be quartered at the Atkinson Grand Hotel on the Queen Emma site, until the temporary lodging houses and mess halls can be erected.

The camp at Pearl Harbor will be a complete city. It will be lighted by a private electric plant, will have a sewer system, a water system, and a complete telephone system.

The water will have to be carried about six miles, and the equipment will include pipe lines and a pumping plant.

The pipe will be laid at once, work beginning by the first of next week in all probability. A club house for the workmen is projected in addition to the sleeping quarters and eating halls.

Tramps took possession of the first floor of the railroad signal tower at Durlington, N. J., and when ordered out by Henry Jacks, the operator, threatened to kill him. Jacks locked himself in the lever room and telegraphed to Camden, thirty miles away. A freight engine was rushed to his assistance, the 30-mile run being made in twenty-nine minutes.
